

Activities Report 2023

Scholarship are being awarded to Children preparing for IIT -7Jan 2023

These scholarships are for economically weak children preparing for IIT, provided by Goldee Masale with the support of Hope Welfare Trust to empower their dreams and education.

Food distribution has been started in the leprosy colony of Gaya.:28 Feb 2023

Hope Welfare Trust has started a food distribution initiative in the leprosy colony of Gaya to support the helpless and marginalized residents of the colony.

Clothes Distributed in Leprosy Colony on the Auspicious Occasion of Holi.
:6 March 2023

Anemia Screening Camp Organized at Assi Ghat :07 April 2023

Anemia Screening Camp Organized at Assi Ghat, Helped by Nidarshna Gowani and Implemented by Our Organization.

Greening Uttar Pradesh: Tree Plantation Initiative: 5 June - 15 Sep- 2023

Hope Welfare Trust, committed to environmental conservation and community welfare, initiated a comprehensive tree plantation program across various districts of Uttar Pradesh. Under the banner of "Greening Uttar Pradesh," the Trust aimed to address environmental degradation, promote sustainable development, and foster community engagement in conservation efforts.

Empowering Women: Cancer Awareness Campaign in Mirzapur and Varanasi

Our team and YWC came together to serve the community empowerment and health promotion, launched a targeted awareness campaign aimed at raising awareness about cancer among women in rural areas. Under the initiative titled "Empowering Women," the Trust focused on seven villages in the districts of Mirzapur and Varanasi, recognizing the importance of early detection and prevention in combating this prevalent disease.

Relief and Rehabilitation: NGO's Humanitarian Assistance Program in Himachal Pradesh

In response to a humanitarian crisis in Himachal Pradesh, caused by natural disasters or other emergencies, our team initiated a comprehensive relief and rehabilitation program aimed at providing immediate assistance to affected communities. The program, spanning from July 20th to July 29th, 2023, focused on distributing essential ration kits and shelter kits to alleviate the suffering of those impacted by the crisis.

Dignity in Health: Menstrual Hygiene Awareness Campaign in Ballia Slum Areas by Hope Welfare Trust.

Recognizing the importance of menstrual hygiene management and women's health in underserved communities, launched a targeted awareness campaign in the slum areas of Ballia. The campaign, conducted on August 2nd and 3rd, aimed to educate hundreds of women about menstrual health and hygiene while distributing sanitary pads to ensure access to essential menstrual hygiene product .

“ Empowering Women: Green Army Women Showcase Footwear Products at Exhibition at Diamond Hotel, Varanasi”:

On August 4, 2023, an inspiring exhibition at Diamond Hotel, Varanasi showcased the footwear products crafted by the Green Army women. These women, empowered through a livelihood initiative by Hope Welfare Trust, displayed their creations from the slipper factory. The exhibition not only highlighted their craftsmanship but also celebrated their journey towards economic independence and empowerment.

Celebrating Freedom: Independence Day Commemoration and Patriotism Promotion Across Uttar Pradesh Districts

On August 15th, 2023, Hope Welfare Trust organized a series of events across various districts of Uttar Pradesh to commemorate India's Independence Day and foster patriotism among communities. The initiative aimed not only to celebrate the nation's freedom but also to educate and inspire citizens about the rich history and sacrifices associated with Indian independence movement.

Rebuilding Lives: Flood Relief Collaboration Between Amazon India and Hope Welfare Trust in Varanasi

In response to the devastating floods that struck Varanasi in August 2023, Amazon India partnered with Hope Welfare Trust to provide urgent assistance to the affected communities. The collaborative effort focused on distributing 500 shelter kits to help families rebuild their lives and homes in the aftermath of the disaster.

Supporting Sikkim: Flood Relief Ration Kit Distribution by Amazon India and Hope Welfare Trust

In response to the devastating floods that struck Sikkim in October 2023, Amazon India and Hope Welfare Trust collaborated to provide urgent assistance to the flood-affected communities. The initiative focused on distributing ration kits to ensure food security and alleviate the immediate needs of those impacted by the disaster.

Empowering Women for Environmental Sustainability: Formation of Green Groups in Firozabad

In a proactive effort to promote environmental sustainability and women's empowerment, Firozabad witnessed the formation of 100 Green Groups comprising women from diverse backgrounds. These groups were established with the aim of mobilizing women to actively participate in green initiatives, fostering environmental consciousness, and driving positive change at the grassroots level.

Providing Shelter and Hope: Flood Relief Efforts in Barabanki by Amazon India and Hope Welfare Trust: 22-24 October

In response to the devastating floods that struck Barabanki in October 2023, Amazon India and Hope Welfare Trust joined forces to provide urgent assistance to the flood-affected communities. The collaborative effort focused on distributing 2000 shelter kits to address the immediate housing need of those affected by disaster.

Digital Learning Support by Shikhar Dhawan Foundation in Ayodhya

On October 30, 2023, the Shikhar Dhawan Foundation took a significant step towards enhancing education access and quality by donating tablets and mobile phones to children attending Baba's school in Ayodhya. This initiative aimed to bridge the digital divide and facilitate remote learning opportunities for students, particularly amid the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Spreading Joy and Festivity: Diwali Celebration through Sweet Distribution

From November 8th to 10th, 2023, a heartwarming initiative took place to celebrate the festival of Diwali by distributing sweets to women, children, and elderly mothers. This endeavour aimed not only to spread joy and festivity but also to acknowledge and honor the contributions of these individuals within the community.

Sustainable Development in Sonbhadra: Infrastructure Projects by Hope Welfare Trust in Collaboration with Goonj Organization

Between November 6th to 20th, 2023, the Hope Welfare Trust, in collaboration with the Goonj organization, undertook significant infrastructure projects in Sonbhadra district. These projects included the construction of three ponds and a road, aimed at addressing key developmental needs and fostering sustainable growth in the region.

Before

After

Empowering Education: School Bag Distribution Initiative in Disadvantaged

On November 18, 2023, a significant initiative was undertaken in Sonbhadra to support education and empower children from disadvantaged backgrounds. This initiative involved the distribution of school bags to 100 children in the region, aiming to remove barriers to education and enable them to attend school with the necessary supplies.

Relief and Recovery: Distribution of CFW Kits to Flood-Affected Communities in Shimla

On December 16, 2023, Hope Welfare Trust, in collaboration with GOONJ, undertook a crucial initiative to provide relief to flood-affected communities in Shimla. This endeavour involved the distribution of CFW (Clothing, Food, and Water) kits, aiming to address the immediate needs of those impacted by the floods and support their recovery efforts.

XVI.Operation Jagriti: Empowering Girls through Education in Firozabad

On January 5, 2024, a transformative initiative unfolded in Firozabad under the banner of Operation Jagriti. Led by a dedicated police officer, this camp focused on empowering girls through education, recognizing the pivotal role education plays in fostering gender equality, empowerment, and social progress.

XVII. Empowering Women: Rights Awareness Workshop by DIG Vipin Mishra with Green Group Women in Ayodhya

On January 15, 2024, a pivotal workshop was organized in Ayodhya under the guidance of Deputy Inspector General (DIG) Vipin Mishra. The workshop aimed to empower women belonging to Green Groups by raising awareness about their rights and promising support from law enforcement authorities.

XVIII. Community-Led Cleanliness Drive: Women's Participation in Temple Sweeping Initiative in Ayodhya

On January 16, 2024, women in Ayodhya responded to the Prime Minister's call for cleanliness by actively participating in a sweeping initiative outside the temple premises. This community-led effort aimed to promote cleanliness, civic responsibility, and community engagement, with the Mayor and councillors joining in to support the initiative

XIX. Empowering Women: Entrepreneurship Workshop by Ashok Gupta in Devra Village, Varanasi

On January 18, 2024, a transformative workshop was organized in Devra village, Varanasi, under the leadership of businessman Ashok Gupta. This workshop aimed to empower women by motivating them for employment and promising business opportunities to 50 women in the community.

XX.Promoting Welfare and Sports: Varanasi Municipal Commissioner's Initiative

On January 19, 2024, the Municipal Commissioner of Varanasi undertook a commendable initiative aimed at promoting both the welfare of elderly mothers and the sports engagement of children. This multifaceted effort involved the distribution of blankets to elderly mothers for their comfort and well-being, along with the provision of cricket equipment to children to encourage their participation in sports activities.

XXI. Warming Hearts: Blanket Distribution Drive by Hope Welfare Trust and Mukul Madhav Foundation

On January 20-21, 2024, Hope Welfare Trust and Mukul Madhav Foundation collaborated to organize a compassionate initiative aimed at providing warmth and comfort to those in need. The distribution drive saw the generous provision of 500 blankets to needy individuals sleeping without blankets on the riverbank, embodying the spirit of empathy and solidarity.

XXII. Warmth and Care: Blanket Distribution Campaign by Hope Welfare Trust

From December 4, 2023, to January 20, 2024, Hope Welfare Trust launched a comprehensive blanket distribution campaign across multiple cold-affected regions, including Varanasi, Sonbhadra, Mirzapur, Lucknow, Ayodhya, Delhi, and other areas. This initiative aimed to provide warmth and comfort to vulnerable individuals enduring harsh winter conditions, with approximately 2,800 blankets distributed throughout the campaign period.

XXIII. Empowering Women: Project Dhabba's Menstrual Hygiene Education and Distribution Initiative

On 1st January over the past six months, Project Dhabba has been actively engaged in an initiative to educate women about menstrual hygiene and distribute sanitary pads. This initiative has reached and educated between 3000 to 4000 women, aiming to break taboos surrounding menstruation, promote hygiene practices, and ensure access to menstrual hygiene products.

